MANCHESTER, N.H. – Twenty-eight players representing 21 different teams have been named to the 2013 New England Football Writers Division II/III All-New England team.

Northeast-10 Conference member Assumption College leads the team with three selections. New England Football Conference members Endicott College and Salve Regina University have two picks, as do Stonehill College from the Northeast-10, Massachusetts State College Athletic Conference champion Framingham State University and MASCAC member Bridgewater State University. Also named to the squad were players from American International College, Bates College, Becker College, Bentley University, Bowdoin College, Husson University, Massachusetts Maritime Academy, Merrimack College, Middlebury College, Mount Ida College, the University of New Haven, Springfield College, Trinity College, Western Connecticut State University and Westfield State University

The Division II Northeast-10 Conference had nine players selected, while from Division III the Massachusetts State College Athletic Conference had seven picks, while the New England Football Conference and the New England Small College Athletic Conference had four picks each. The Eastern Collegiate Football Conference had three selections. One player came from Springfield College which is not affiliated with a New England Conference.

The team will be honored at the New England Football Writers Captains and Awards Banquet on Thursday, December 12, at the Montvale Plaza, in Stoneham, Mass. People interested in attending should contact Dick Lipe at Bentley University at 781-891-2334.
